

27 November 2023

Dear Valued Supplier,

Subject: Important Announcement: Change in Ownership

We are writing to share an important update that will directly impact our relationship with you.

We are thrilled to announce that Teknocorp will be undergoing a change in ownership effective 27 November 2023. After careful consideration and planning, we have reached an agreement to sell the business to Austco Healthcare. There will be no change to our brand as such we will continue to trade as Teknocorp.

While this change represents a significant transition for us, we want to assure you that trading with Teknocorp going forward will be business as usual. Your contact person within Teknocorp remains unchanged. We are committed to making this transition as seamless as possible for you.

From today operations will be operating under Austco Services Pty Ltd, trading as Teknocorp. Please reach out if you require new documentation with Austco Services Pty Ltd, trading as Teknocorp, but in any case if you could create a new account with us under that name.

For completeness please provide us with a statement of account showing outstanding balances with you up to 27 November 2023 so that we can reconcile same.

Should you have any questions or require further information regarding this change in ownership, please do not hesitate to reach out to us at invoices@teknocorp.com.au

Warm regards,

Robert Portelli
